■ Trump sneaked off Air Force One in catering truck over Iran threat

The Angle: A newly reported security incident from last month reveals the former president was quietly removed from Air Force One at a Turkish airport and flown out on a separate military flight after an Iranian threat. It's the kind of cloak-and-dagger presidential detail that raises questions about how serious the threat actually was and why we're just hearing about it now.

- Trump was secretly removed from Air Force One using an airport catering truck at a Turkish airport
- He was then flown out on a separate military flight in response to an Iranian threat
- The incident occurred last month and was not publicly disclosed until now

The Wait, What Moment

- How real was the Iran threat, and why wasn't the public told about this at the time—is that normal security protocol or a cover-up?

TRENDING TODAY

■ Trump's secret Turkey escape: Iranian threat revealed

The Angle: While Trump was publicly saying everything was fine in Turkey, his team was quietly spiriting him out on a covert flight due to a credible Iranian assassination threat. It's the kind of behind-the-scenes security drama that shows how differently things operate at the presidential level.

- Trump took a secret flight from Turkey last month after an Iranian assassination threat forced an extraordinary security operation
- Public statements at the time contradicted what was actually happening—Trump's team kept the threat and evacuation under wraps
- The threat was deemed credible enough to trigger immediate protective measures and a covert departure

The Hidden Story

- How many times do you think world leaders are in real danger we never hear about—and should we know?

LIFESTYLE CHAT

■ Trump cuts childhood vaccine schedule—experts sound alarm

The Angle: The new administration is overhauling a decades-old vaccination schedule that protects kids from preventable diseases. Public health officials are warning this could leave millions of children vulnerable to outbreaks.

- President Trump signed an executive order Monday to reduce childhood vaccinations to 11 immunizations
- Health experts warn the reduced schedule leaves more children vulnerable to preventable diseases
- The current CDC-recommended schedule includes protection against diseases like measles, polio, and whooping cough

The Health Divide

- Are you comfortable with your kids getting fewer vaccines, or does this worry you—and where are you actually getting your vaccine info?

■ Drug-Resistant Fungus Scientists Just Figured Out How It Hides

The Angle: Candida auris is spreading fast and killing people—and researchers just cracked how it burrows into your skin to avoid antibiotics. It's the kind of microscopic threat that sounds like sci-fi but is very real.

- Candida auris is a drug-resistant fungus classified as an urgent public health threat by health authorities
- The fungus is growing more dangerous over time as it develops resistance
- Scientists have now discovered how the fungus hides in skin, a major breakthrough in understanding its survival mechanism

The Reality Check

- How worried should you actually be about a fungus you've probably never heard of—and what does this discovery mean for stopping it?

■ Trump defends FIFA boss as soccer federations cry foul

The Angle: Three major soccer federations just called out FIFA president Gianni Infantino in an open letter, accusing him of deception—and now Trump is wading in to defend him. It's a rare collision between U.S. politics and global soccer governance that says something about power, influence, and who gets to police who.

- Donald Trump posted on social media Monday that replacing Gianni Infantino would be a 'terrible mistake'
- Three soccer federations issued an open letter accusing Infantino of 'deception' over his handling of a World Cup commercial-rights sale
- The dispute centers on a proposed stake sale in World Cup commercial rights—a deal Infantino apparently pushed without full transparency

The Politics-Soccer Mashup

- Should a U.S. president be weighing in on who runs FIFA, or is this just Trump doing Trump?

■ Toronto woman posed as pilot, scored hundreds of free flights

The Angle: A former flight attendant pulled off a years-long fraud scheme straight out of Catch Me If You Can—using fake IDs to impersonate a pilot and rack up free flights before getting busted. It's a wild true story that actually happened, and it's raising questions about airport security gaps.

- Dallas Pokornik, a former flight attendant from Toronto, pleaded guilty in U.S. federal court to the fraud scheme
- She used fake identification to pose as a pilot and scored hundreds of free flights
- The scheme mirrors the plot of the 2002 Steven Spielberg film Catch Me If You Can

The Brazen Move

- How did she pull this off for years before anyone caught on—and what does it say about the security checks airlines actually use?

ON-AIR BIT BREAKDOWN

- Step 1: The Setup - First 90 seconds -> Hosts recap the bare facts: flight attendant, fake pilot ID, hundreds of free flights, federal court. Keep it snappy.
- Step 2: The Real Question - Next segment -> Dig into the 'how'—what made airport security so loose that she got away with it? Did she have inside knowledge from her flight attendant days?
- Step 3: The Catch Me If You Can Callback - Transition moment -> Host takes a shot: 'Spielberg made a whole movie about this in 2002. Did she watch it and think, yeah, I can do that?'

■ Zuckerberg's yacht ignored distress call off Alaska coast

The Angle: Meta CEO Mark Zuckerberg's luxury yacht failed to respond to a maritime emergency call last week, raising questions about whether the crew was monitoring standard safety channels. It's a rare moment of public accountability for one of tech's most powerful billionaires.

- A small skiff off Alaska's coast sent out a radio call for help that the yacht's crew initially did not hear
- Mark Zuckerberg's team later said the crew was not monitoring the distress frequency
- The incident highlights gaps in maritime safety protocols even for high-profile vessels

The Accountability Question

- Should luxury yachts be legally required to monitor emergency channels 24/7, or is this just a blown-off incident that doesn't matter?

■ Google billionaire spending big to kill California's billionaire tax

The Angle: A major tech billionaire is dropping nine figures to fight a ballot measure that would hit the ultra-wealthy with a one-time wealth tax—and it's become the most expensive ballot fight in California history. This is about power, money, and whether states can actually tax billionaires.

- Prop 40 would impose a one-time 5% tax on the net worth of roughly 200 billionaires living in California
- A Google billionaire is spending $100 million to oppose the measure—one of the largest personal donations against a single ballot initiative
- The campaign has become the most expensive ballot fight in California history

The Wealth Tax Reality Check
